

02 February 2011

Falcon boosts Indonesian team

Trade finance boutique Falcon Group has appointed two new business development managers for its Jakarta office.

Trade finance boutique Falcon Group has appointed Danu Prihantara Nurrachman and Daniel Kandinata as business development managers in its Jakarta office.

Nurrachman and Kandinata will report to Davy Kurniadi, regional manager Asia. Kandinata has over 20 years of experience in the corporate financing arena in Indonesia having held senior positions in both business and banking.

Nurrachman previously worked in the telecommunication industry in the US as regional manager for the Asia Pacific region.